In The Spring

A YOUNG MAN'S FANCY . . .

Dad Collier, my best friend, says I have been acting a little strange lately. The truth, although he doesn't realize it, is that I've become a man. And I don't mind admitting that I've been noticing the girls quite a bit. I guess that's why I decided the other day that no red-blooded American boy should finish the seventh grade without having a date. Of course, my father will have to drive, and then will be a big hindrance, but I suppose that I will just have to put up with that. Personally, I don't see why they don't give drivers' licenses to eleven year olds.

Headline to say, I'll ask Betty. She's my sister's girl. She can't know it, of course, but she will probably be thrilled when I tell her. Here I am, locked in my bedroom with the telephone beside me, and nobody within hearing distance. I hope. After she accepts, what shall I do—what if she doesn't accept? She might not even want to go out with me. She probably already has a date anyway. I'll think of something quick to say if she turns me down. I don't want her to think that I really care if she goes with me or not. You have to be pretty tough with these women and let them know exactly where they stand.

It's time to call now. Maybe I'd better wait till another night to call her. Maybe she's not at home. She is probably having a secret date with somebody at this very moment. No, I've got to call her right now. It will prove to everyone that I am a real man. It won't really be so hard. Just a short conversation . . . (I'll probably be the shortest conversationalist around) She'll be through. After I call her once, it won't be so hard to call her again. Well, here goes. 9-416—just one more number—they'll call the "Guns" Westlake after this. At least the line isn't busy, maybe nobody is at home. Hello Betty, this is Wally Westlake and I was wondering if, uh, if we could, if you would, could we, I was wondering if you and I could go on a date Saturday night. My father would have to drive and you know about parents, but we could still have—oh Mr. Green—may I speak to Betty? Yes, Ma'am, I'll call back a little later.

Stunt Night— A Real Success

MBA's annual stunt night was presented April 13 at eight o'clock before a "standing room only" audience. It was sponsored by the Key Club and the student body with the able assistance of teachers. Each class was represented dramatically.

The Junior School portrayed "A Spring Fashions Show." It was cleverly thought up and every seventh and eighth grade student participated.

The Freshmen did a takeoff "Little Red Riding Hood," which proved to be very amusing.

The Junior's skit was "If Men Played Cards As Women Do." Funny tales, skits, radio announcements, and humorous dialogue dominated this skit.

"Drapes" was the Senior's skit. A murder of a bear named millionaire was the key plot in this chilling suspense drama.

Stunt night was a complete success and everyone will be looking for it next year.

Mrs. Scott Substituting for Mr. Hackman in Chemistry and Physics

Vanderbilt University sent to Mrs. Paul Scott to take over Mr. Hackman's physics and chemistry classes. At the University she is a chemistry assistant. Also, Mrs. Scott's husband is an instructor in chemistry at Vanderbilt.

Before she moved to Nashville, she lived in Ardmore, Oklahoma. Mrs. Scott graduated from Vanderbilt University with a Master's degree in chemistry. As a student of hers I can say that she is an excellent substitute for Mr. Hackman. The whole student body wishes her luck upon taking up this task at so late a date.

Veteran of World War II Visits Academy

MBA was very fortunate to have Major Sam Donnell who was a chaplain in World War II talk to us in a special assembly. In 1940 he was called into the army and after his training was sent to the Philippines. Here he was chaplain to 4000 airmen who were never sent their planes. He stated that in two one-hour lectures these airmen were made into infantrymen.

After he was captured he marched on the Bataan death march in which 140 people out of 10000 survived.

Due to a limited time he was only able to tell a small portion of his horrible and devastating experience. It certainly took a man who was mentally fit as well as physically fit to go through what Major Donnell did. I'm sure that every student thoroughly enjoyed his stirring talk and hopes that someday he will come to see us again.

Dale and Duke Win Naval Scholarships

MBA had the honor of having two of our seniors placed on the N.R.O.T.C. scholarship program. Jimmy Dale and Rusty Duke will attend Vanderbilt next fall, where they will take a naval science course in addition to their other subjects. The boys will have three cruises to different places on the globe during three summers and are to serve for three years service after their graduation from Vanderbilt.

Two of our last year's seniors who were already in the Naval Cadet Program, Ben Klingner and Ben Adams, were awarded the regular Naval scholarship.

These awards certainly add to the record of Montgomery Bell Academy.

Bell Ringer Announces Head Men for '54

At this time we would like to announce the men chosen for the two top positions on the paper staff for next year. They are Dick Stokoe, editor, and Rusty Boyd, business manager.

Both of these boys have worked on the paper staff this year and are very capable workers, so we can rest assured that the paper will be in good hands. The whole student body is behind these boys one hundred per cent in wishing them good luck for the forthcoming year.

Mrs. Clark Takes Freshmen Science Classes

Dr. Sager acquired a new General Science teacher to take the place of Mr. Hackman. Her name is Mrs. Wallace Clark. She has been doing substitute teaching in the city and county schools and has also been a girl scout leader. She is doing a fine job and will make a fine replacement. Her job will be hard since she is starting so late in the year, but she is capable of doing it.

Grade School News

Josh Taylor, Wade Elam, Tony Brash, George Sloan, Laird Smith, and Ben McDermott gave a square dance at Mrs. Brown's Coffee Shop. Most of the boys attended, also Miss Thompson and Mrs. Hixon. Jimmy Butler was the "punch drinking champion". Everyone had a wonderful time.

The sport on gym now is tennis, and dead ball when it is raining. It really is dead ball if you get hit by Tom.

The Grade School gave their usual good performance at Round Night. Everybody looked so "beautiful". Harmon was a sweater girl, Haddison was a dashing tennis girl, Ed was a fine school girl, and George Sloan was the bride. Although we didn't win, we had a good time. Ha!

The boys on the privilege list in the eighth grade are George Sloan, Wade Elam, Josh Taylor, Bill Lightfoot, Laird Smith, and Emmett Dozier. In the seventh grade Tony Edwards and Robert White made it.

Harmon tells of his nights at the picture shows, and Squirt tells of his "nights of Anna".

Friday we will see the whole seventh grade in demerit study hall.

See you next September.

WATER SAFETY

We are now approaching that season of the year when thousands of people will lose their lives because of lack of knowledge of water safety. The one dark note in an otherwise bright and stimulating picture is seen in the number of people who lose their lives by drowning (7,300 a year).

Knowledge and skill—these are the things which tend to eliminate danger. Skill in aquatic is acquired through instruction and practice. But the need must be a skillful swimmer in order to practice safety.

Do not swim for at least one hour following meals. The violation of this rule is the principal cause of stomach cramps.

2. Do not swim alone.

3. Do not attempt a distance swim unless you are accompanied by a boat.

4. Do not stay in the water after you are exhausted or cold.

5. Do not swim or dive in places that are unfamiliar to you as you will not know the various depths or currents.

In shallow swimming, the principal hazards are tide and currents. Hundreds of swimmers suffer neck and spine fractures from diving into shallow water where the water depth has changed by the tide. Ocean undertows or currents are caused by the outward movement of water. The waves move toward the shore and the undertow is reverse action of this water. The swimmer caught in an undertow should turn, go with it, and take a diagonal course to the surface.

Upon the completion of the Old Hickory Dam on the Cumberland River there will be a large body of water in our doorstep. Those of us who go boating on huge bodies of water would do well to understand the simple rules of safety. A frequent cause of boat accidents is overloading a boat. People who are caught out in an overloaded boat are in trouble when rough water develops. All too few know that

Federal law requires a U. S. Coast Guard approved life-preserver for each and every passenger in a boat. If your boat should capsize and you do not have a life preserver you should hold on to the overturned boat, but do not try to climb on it. Another hazard is overpowering an outboard boat of insufficient size or design. The safest way to aid a swimmer in difficulty is to rescue him without entering the water. In rescuing a victim, you should be sure you know how to preserve your own life. Knowledge of water safety is essential—the life you save may be your own.—Dick Soles.

Maroon Baseballers Stop Ryan

The Big Red baseball club pulled a mild upset in beating the Ryan Panthers 4-1 at Centennial No. 1. Big Barney Regan started the game for the Maroons and did very well for two innings when control trouble set in and the M.B.A. took over themselves on the wrong end of a 4-0 score. In the fifth the Maroons failed to run, but the Ryan pitcher Ryan was still fighting and led 7-5 going into the last of the sixth inning. In the sixth the Maroons cut loose and with two men on base, "Dare" Brown hammered one for down the third base line past the left fielder for a home run which scored three runs. The Big Red scored again before the inning was over and trailed by only one run 7-6. In a very tight ball game, Greer Kirkpatrick, who was on the mound now shut out the Panthers in the seventh to leave the gate open for the Maroons. M.B.A. was fighting now for this ball game and was not to be denied. With Brown's big hit leading the attack again, the Maroons took the ball game by a 7-1 score. With two men on base again Brown smashed a double to score the men on base and end the game. Kirkpatrick was the winning pitcher. Brown was the big gun with a single, double, and a home run in four trips to the plate. Buford had two hits in four trips to help the cause.

M.B.A. Tennis Team Continues As Top In N.L.L.

The Maroon tennis team are continuing their winning ways in the N.L.L. competition. In the first three matches with East, West, and Poseyville the opponents have failed to win a match. The scores have been 5-0, 6-0, and 5-0 in that order. With N.L.L. singles champion John Thorpe leading the way, the Maroon racquetmen should win another title this year. The team is taking their annual trip to Chattanooga to challenge some of the Mid-South prep set teams. While there, they will play M. Collins, Darlington, and Bayler in that order. They will leave on Thursday 22 and remain through Saturday, the 25. It should be a very interesting trip for the team. Those making the trip will be Captain Thorpe, Roberts, Williams, Littlejohn, Anderson, and Brothers. Good luck fellows.

Cohn Edges Maroons In Slugfest

In a wild-sewing contest the Cohn Tigers edged the Big Red baseballers 16-14 at the Thayer Hospital diamond. Big Carlin Roddo started the game for the Maroons and could not seem to get going as Cohn rapped him for 4 runs in the first inning. Regan relieved Rolle in the second and gave up two runs to the red hot Tigers. In the third the Maroons came to life as two singles, four triples, and a few walks mixed in allowed the Red team to score 7 runs. Regan set the Cohn club down without a run in the third and the score stood at 13-7 in favor of Cohn. Cohn scored 2 runs in the 4th and it looked as though M.B.A. was through for the day. Thorpe relieved Regan in the 4th. The 4th inning was scoreless for both teams but in the 5th both clubs notched on 3 apiece. In the last frame the Maroons came to life again and notched up 4 runs before the third out. It looked as though the Red team might catch Cohn for a while but they could just not overcome that early lead. The highest of the game was the place where Dale, Martin, Buford and Rolle hit successive triples which is a rarity in any game. Moon led the hitting in the game with 4 hits in 5 trips to the plate.

Maroon Linksman Compete at Chattanooga

The M.B.A. golf team, defending city champions for the past three years, competed in the Southern Intercollegiate Golf Tournament sponsored by the Rotary Club of Chattanooga April 26 and May 1. The event is held over the Sacred Mountain and Fairland (Lookout Mountain) Clubs for the first 25 holes, followed by the first 15 at the tough Chattanooga Golf and Country Club. Last year the academy team placed third in the high school division, but this year did not fare so well. Palmer Temple led the Maroon linksman with a 224 total for the 54 holes, followed by Alan Goor with 240, Don Dickerson at 254, and Hatch McDaniel at 260.

William Wiper's REPORT on The Coming of Night in the Waki-Waki Islands

As we sit along the shore of Waki-Waki we hear the faint sound of a ukulele, and we watch the dancing of a Hawaii Rummy. In the sky we see a flicker of light which we know from the sound of Captain of the Marine Scout Fleet making a night landing on Mace. In the harbor of Waki-Waki sits the Japanese Imperial Fleet headed by the brilliant commander, Taira, who is from the Whop-Clan. And as we sit down to dinner we have before us a good piece of Prime Preston pork. In the distance we hear the call of a Coon dog to its mate who is near a stony, moon-mooned promenade. Shortly after for supper we find an our glaze strange vegetable. There is someone at our door, it's Black, the Member looking for a dissonant penny. I can't see him too well, for these borrowed glasses are all fogged up, but things are clearing up, far from somewhere in America there has come a brilliant glare (chuck). Overhead a hawk circles looking for prey. This house has just acquired a new Supporter to keep it from dropping. Now and then a huge cloud of smoke arises from the Puffer Institute. Overhead the sound of the rocket ship has been replaced by the sight of a Block. This morning two men were brought in dying from deeply cobra bites. Heiden was seen you know where? The cob at the juke box were taught a new dance by Hunk-d-dos. The men bitten this morning were found not only to be bitten by a cobra, but also by a Pogo Snake. The man playing the skeleton is now Hunt. Hal (our boy) was challenged this morning by Mule in a barroom scoring contest (6748533467429974182 to 1 odds that mule wins). Personalities of the Month

John Thorpe

Have you ever heard of the friendly "J Bird"? That's John Thorpe, the without-cards-on-the-campus. I have been here since he came to us from Woodmont School in September of 1949. He pledged Delta Sigma and now he is a member of that group.

In the field of sports Jay has been the leader of the basketball and tennis team. His sophomore year he played J.V. basketball and went on to play varsity the following two years. This year he was co-captain of the team. I played varsity tennis for 3 years and is also captain of this group. It looks like Jay is the choice of colleges. At present he is a member of the tennis and water staff plus the Monogram Club. Like—nothing, dislike everything.

Jack Williams

Jack is one of our outstanding scholars at MHA. He has attended MHA for 4 years. Jack had gone to Stokes in grammar school. As a freshman Jack pledged Delta Sigma and now holds the office of treasurer. Also in his freshman year he received the General Science and English medals. Jack is this year's Sec-tretary for the senior class.

Tennis has been Jack's best sport. He has played on the Varsity for four years which is quite commendable. Jack participated in many organizations—the H.V. Club, Monogram Club and is the feature editor of the annual and newspaper.

Last year Jack received a high honor. He went to Boy's State and became Commissioner of Education. Jack prefers to go to Vandy for his education where I know he will do well. Like—Physics, Dislike—French.

Seniors Choose Sponsor

The Senior Class of Montgomery Bell Academy is more than proud to announce that Miss Nancy Tupper has been chosen the class sponsor of 1953. Nancy is the 16 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Tupper, Jr. She attends St. Bernard Academy where she is a Junior.

In her Junior year she is an active member of the Deaconess Club of St. Bernard Academy. She is also a hard worker on the school paper at her school. Nancy is an active member of the Kappa Delta Theta Society. We, the Senior Class, are honored to be represented by this fine, outstanding young girl. Lynch Bennett, Jr.

"Girl of the Month"

Ann Huddleston

The popular Miss this month is Ann Huddleston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay W. Huddleston, Clairmont Place. Ann is a sophomore at Harpeth Hall where she is a member of the Triad Club. Miss Huddleston holds membership in the Speech and Debate Club and sings in the Glee Club. Besides her many activities on the school campus Ann takes a large part in church work as chairman of Worship for the Young Peoples group at Calvary Methodist Church. Here she also sings in the choir of which she is secretary. Miss Huddleston is an active member of the Kappa Delta Theta society. She likes several sports including softball, tennis, and swimming. No group is quite complete without her gay laughter and pleasing personality. The Bell Ringer congratulates her as Girl of the Month. Duncan Calliott
